THOUGHT FOR MEDITATION

We are learning from the teaching and example of Jesus that life itself is a religion, that nothing is more sacred than a human being, that the end of all right institutions, whether the home or the church or an educational establishment, or a government, is the development of the human soul. – Anna Howard Shaw, a leader in the women's suffrage movement in the United States. She was also a physician and one of the first ordained female Methodist ministers in the United States.

CALL TO WORSHIP

Inspired by Psalm 23

Loving Shepherd, you know our names; you care for us.
When we face darkness and death, you walk beside us.
When we hunger for your love, you fill us with your presence.
When we are fearful and in need, you feed us at your table.
As we gather to worship and give you praise, we are grateful that you welcome us to dwell in the house of goodness and mercy all the days of our lives.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Holy God, we confess that we have strayed from your paths of right relationship and peace. We have dishonored you, ourselves, and your creation with what we have done and left undone. We repent of these hurtful ways and ask for your divine guidance. Forgive us we pray, as we learn to imitate your graciousness and forgive others as we have been forgiven. Open our eyes to see the surprises of resurrection. Guide our feet into the way of peace. Amen.

WORDS OF ASSURANCE

Though we may walk through shadows, we are assured that God's mercy overflows as a healing spring to cleanse us and restores us to new and abundant life.

In the name of the Risen Christ, we are forgiven. Alleluia! Amen.
