CENTERING PRAYER

God of the prophets, with Scripture and water you claim people as your own. Claim us with water and the word, so that we may rejoice in the life given to us through the gift of the Holy Spirit, for the sake of the one whose spirit lives in us, Jesus Christ. Amen.

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Beloved community, let us draw the circle wide!

And draw it wider still.

Each of us is here because something draws us to the Divine Jesus.

We come to explore what it is that draws us here, in community with neighbors who can teach us what it is that draws them here.

We come with questions, struggles, doubts.

We come with unique perspectives that enrich the whole community.

We come in vast diversity of mind, body, being,

to live into a unity that does not quell our differences, but celebrates them.

We come to abide in the love of Jesus, and to learn to bear good fruit that lasts.

Come, let us join in worship of the God of love

Who teaches us what true love is.

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Jesus asks only this of us:

that we love one another just as he loves us — a love without conditions, a love that liberates!

But again and again, we choose hate, or fear, or control, not only with those we call enemies but even with our family and friends.

The love of God is a love that acts, a love that bears fruit that lasts, but we continue to think of love in terms of simple words,

saying “love” with our mouths but acting in ways that harm, or failing to act at all.

God’s Spirit bursts through all walls we build to separate “us” from “them,” but we build them back, unsure of what we’d be without an “other” on whom to project our insecurities, on whom to blame our misfortunes or the consequences of our own crimes.

Created for abundance, we live as hostages of scarcity.

We steal from our neighbors and hoard whatever resources, whatever power we can get our hands on.

Forgive us, Loving God.

Teach us, again and again how to live into your love.

SILENT PRAYERS OF CONFESSION

WORDS OF FORGIVENESS

Siblings in the One who lived, died, and rose for us,

even when we fail to abide in God’s love,

still, still God abides in us – chooses to call us friend, chooses to lift us up.

Thus we are redeemed – not through any effort of our own but simply through love which is deeper and truer than we can imagine.

Empowered by this remarkable gift of grace,

Let us share Christ’s love, peace and forgiveness with one another.

The peace of Christ be with you. And also with you.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE – A LITANY FOR MOTHERS

THE LORD'S PRAYER Maori & Polynesian, New Zealand Book of Common Prayer

Eternal Spirit, Earth-maker, Pain bearer, Life-giver, Source of all that is and that shall be, Father and Mother of us all, Loving God, in whom is heaven:

The hallowing of your name echo through the universe; The way of your justice be followed by the peoples of the world; Your heavenly will be done by all created beings; Your commonwealth of peace and freedom sustain our hope and come on earth.

With the bread we need for today, feed us. In the hurts we absorb from one another, forgive us. In times of temptation and test, strengthen us. From trial too great to endure, spare us. From the grip of all that is evil, free us. For you reign in the glory of the power that is love, now and forever. Amen.
